

Company Notes

(December 15, 2017) A-Day

- 1) Cyber Patriot training today and all cadets that were selected for the Portfolio briefing for the JPA will meet Monday after school.
- 2) Cadets don't forget the military ball tickets are on sale for $40 per person. You must have your ticket paid in full by February 1st.
- 3) Cadets community service trackers are due by Wednesday.
- 4) The JROTC Pot Luck will be held Thursday. We will have approximately 45 cadets in attendance. If you signed up for the gift exchange remember they will not exceed $7.00.
- 5) Cadets the Wreaths Across America at the DFW Cemetery is tomorrow. Remember the uniform is Class "B" with black utility jacket. Your classroom show time is between 8:30-8:45.
- 6) Cadets if you have not turned in your Class "A" jacket to the supply room do it ASAP.
- 7) The Cadet of the Quarter Board will be conducted on Monday. DON'T FORGET 1SGs. The uniform is Class "B". (Alberston-Gantt-Atkens)
- 8) Cadets our battalion scheduled field trip to Medieval Times on January 19th and will cost $20 per cadet. We are looking forward to taking the entire battalion on this trip so get your tickets paid for by January 12th. SIGN UP TODAY
- 9) The semester exam will be consist of the JPA questions and all JROTC Ranks to include their acronym and pay grades. STUDY STUDY STUDY

JPA Question # 1: How are ribbons positioned on the Female Class "A" Jacket?

Answer: Ribbons are parallel to the nameplate which is 1 to 2 inches above the top button

JPA Question # 2: How should the nameplate be worn on the female Class "A" Jacket?

Answer: Placed 1 to 2 inches above the top button of the coat centered horizontally on the right side of the coat.

Quote of the Week: "You must expect great things of yourself before you can do them".