The Cadet Corner

Cadet Second Lieutenant Daniel Zuniga is looking forward to participating in the 5th Brigade Drill Championships in San Antonio, Texas in January. In order to prepare, Cadet Second Lieutenant Zuniga will use these next few months to practice hard, and study his drill questions. “I believe we will perform our best and work hard because our main goal is to make a meaningful impact on the meet,” Zuniga said.

Cadet of the Month

Congratulations to Cadet Private Louis Trevino for earning the Cadet of the Month of October. Cadet Private Trevino has shown all the qualities of a leader. First proving it to his fellow classmates and then to the Cadet of the Month Board. If you see Cadet Private Trevino in the hall way tell him congratulations.

This past weekend, the Bronco Battalion attended in the Cowtown Drill Meet in Fort Worth, Texas. They competed in PT, Unarmed Drill, Armed Drill, Armed Drill Exhibition, and Male Color Guard.

Cadet Major Nadia Channel believes that the most difficult thing she experienced was the weather affecting their performance. Although the team faced these adversities, they all excelled in their routines and performances.

The Bronco Battalion had a great outcome taking home many trophies. Great job Broncos!

The Quiz Corner

The Bronco Battalion
Question of the Month:

Which company raised the most money in the JROTC Bronco Blitz?

- b. Bravo Company
- c. Charlie Company
- d. Delta Company

*Answer to last months quiz:
B– The Former Kowbell arena

The Bronco Battalion participated in the Denton Drill Meet at Billy Ryan High School On October 6. They took home four first-place trophies, one second-place trophy, and earned overall grand champion of the meet.

Lieutenant Colonel and senior Solomon Davis lead the male color guard team. At drill practice every week, he demands discipline and preciseness in practices, so the team can master the concept of drill. “I was worried about preparing the team for the inspection phase and spinning rifles during unarmed exhibition,” Davis said. “A first-place performance needs to come as close to perfection as you can get.” Davis said.

They have been working hard to achieve their goals this year. Good job Broncos!
